.		X		Observed no validity to complaint received. Complainant called in stating Saturday they purchased a chicken tender dinner with a double side of mac'n'cheese. They took a bite of the mac'n'cheese and said the texture was "off" and looked slimey. I had spoke with the PIC and he walked me through the procedure in making the mac'n'cheese. The mac'n'cheese is premade and heated rapidly and hot held 135F. If there is any leftover, it is cooled down to 41F and the first to be heated at opening. The mac'n'cheese does not last any longer than 24 hours.
